Class History

In the fall of 1947, four years ago all of which have passed too quickly, 29 good-looking and ambitious freshmen entered high school at Lancaster Central. They were Virginia Stotlar, Vivian Runyon, Dean Decker, Marilyn Gerber, Douglas Krauter, Johnny Bright, Richard Shady, Dale Heckley, Richard Elzey, Delores Shallenberger, Marjorie Brown, Carol Barger, John Meeks, Anthony Chrystler, Eddie Zirkle, Richard Gerber, Jack Bowen, Waldo Wolf, Arlene Anderson, Patty Wolf, Leon Byerly, Gerald Gerber, Christine Dubach, Ellen Feichter, Larry Shallenberger, Kenneth Hamilton, John Hanni, Tom Wiebke, and Carolyn Williams. We had two class parties that year. One was a party at the school and the other a hayride. Our class officers were, Vivian Runyon, president; Arlene Anderson, vice-president; Tom Wiebke, secretary-treasurer, Carol Barger student council representative. Mr. Mugg was our class sponsor.

In the sophmore year the new students were George Bailey, Richard Close, Jim Allen and Naomi Harris The students who left the class were Richard Shady, Christine Dubach, Jack Bowen, John Meeks, Delores and Larry Shallenberger. Our class officers were Leon Byerly, president; Richard Elzey, vice-president; Carolyn Williams, secretary-treasurer and Kenneth Hamilton, student council representative. We had one class party that year. Our class sponsor was Mrs. Troyer.

In the junoir year we gained two new students. They were Jane Caldwell, and David Eiler. The class lost Douglas Krauter, George Bailey, Johnny Bright, and Eddie Zirkle. Our class sponsors were Mrs. Troyer and Mr. Hedges. We didn't have any parties.

In the senior year we lost Virginia Stotlar. Eddie Zirkle joined the class and then left two months after school had started which left us with 24 members. Our class officers were David Eiler, president; Tiom Wiebke, vice-president; Jane Caldwell, secretary; Marilyn Gerber, treasurer. Our student council members were Richard Elzey and Pat Wolf.

"Tom"
Don't look at your past but always look forward.

JAMES RICHARD ALLEN
"Jim"
Don't try dying, but die trying.

VIVIAN LOUISE MARGARET RUNYON
"Viv"
There are two ways of spreading light, to be the candle or the mirror that reflects it.

LEON B. BYERLY
"Pud"
Cowards die many times before their death, the valiant never die but once.

Seniors

MARILYN LYNETTE GERBER
"Nig"
Always laughing and full of fun,
she is liked by everyone.

GERALD LEON BERGER
"Gabby"
Do your best today and you don't have to worry about tomorrow.

CAROLYN JEAN WILLIAMS
"Candy"
The first step toward success is the one you should try to make your best.

RICHARD GENE GERBER

It's what we learn after we think we know it all that counts.

ANTHONY LEE CHRYSTLER
"Andy"
God made me, and therefore let me pass as a man.

Senior Class Will

Article I

We, the class of 51, being of sound mind and body have gathered together in commemoration of the Lancaster Central High School to write our last will and testament. Upon leaving, we wish to make a settlement of all our properties, possessions, and characteristics.

SECTION I: We the Senior Class, bequeath to the faculty our broad sense of humor, our kind ways, and a few less worries.

SECTION II: We, the Senior Class, bequeath to the juniors, our assembly seats, our places on the staff of the annual, and good luck, you'll need it!

SECTION III: We, the Senior Class, bequeath to the sophomores our best wishes in their future class plays.

SECTION IV: We, the Senior Class, bequeath our wishes for success in the coming years to the freshmen.

SECTION V: We, the Misfite Boys, Jim, Tom, David, and Richard do bequeath our ability to sing to Jacque Harris.

SECTION VI: We, Marilyn, Carolyn, Vivian, Jane, Arlene, Carol, Ellen, and Pat do bequeath our right to sing so well and get to go to Indianapolis to the Freshman girls.

SECTION VII: We, Dick Close, and Dean Decker bequeath our job as printers for Mrs. Gaiser to anyone who is dumb enough to take it.

Article II

SECTION I: We, the members of the Senior Class, will our individual possessions, being in very sound mind.

I, Marilyn Gerber, do bequeath the right to go with the same boy during my 4 years of high school to Diane Scott.

I, Kenneth Hamilton, do bequeath my leaky fountain pen and bookkeeping books to anyone who is fool enough to take them.

I, David R. Eiler, do bequeath anything of mine to anyone who wants it bad enough.

I, Carol Barger, do bequeath my ability to be cheerleader for three years to Elizabeth Ann Stahl.

I, Leon Byerly, do bequeath my right to go steady with a girl from Ossian to Max Hamilton who I still have hopes for.

I, Carolyn Williams, do bequeath my brown eyes to Kay Newman.

I, Gabby Gerber, do bequeath my ability to talk so much to Jerry Elzey.

I, Arlene Anderson, do bequeath my right to be the first senior girl to wear an engagement ring to any junior girl.

I, Tom Wiebke, do bequeath my clown ability to Bob Nash.

I, Patty Wolf, do bequeath my right to sing with Richard Elzey to Virginia Byrd.

I, Richard Elzey, do bequeath some of my curly hair to Mr. Caldwell, who needs it very badly.

I, Waldo Wolf, do bequeath my liking English to Rolland Dippel.

I, Naomi Harris, do bequeath my red hair and freckles to anyone who would be fool enough to take them.

I, Dale Heckley, do bequeath my school books to anyone who wants them.

I, Richard Gerber, do bequeath my short hair to Mr. Shady.

I, Marjorie Brown, do bequeath my speech book, but heck I don't want to give it away.

I, Jane Caldwell, do bequeath my vast knowledge of Physics to John Mugg.

I, Vivian Runyon, do bequeath my long hair to Lucille Reed.

I, Anthony Lee Chrystler, do bequeath my glasses to Mr. Caldwell, because I think he needs an extra pair to help him keep track of those mischievous freshman.

I, Ellen Fiechter, do bequeath my bookkeeping book, and all its lessons, to Joan Meyer. And may she make better use of them.

I, Dick Close, do bequeath my height to Tom Frauhiger.

I, James Allen, do bequeath my ability to get dates to Rolland Dippel.

I, Dean Decker, do bequeath my cockiness to George Ramsey who has plenty already.

I, John Hanni, do bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble in shop class to Tom Frauhiger.
